

New Cross Road, SE14

An impressive Five double bedroom Grade II listed period house boasting an abundance of character and set over three floors. There are three reception rooms, two of which can also be used as bedrooms, two bathrooms, a stunning kitchen with island, utility room and pretty garden. Offered fully furnished with driveway parking for two cars. Ideal for professionals, corporate tenants, or large families. All bills included.

Conveniently located for New cross gate station being just 0.6 miles which offers both National rail and overground services. There are also shops and amenities within walking distance.

Features

- Five generously sized bedrooms
- Three reception rooms
- Two modern bathrooms
- Fully furnished throughout
- All bills included
- Large private garden