Evesham, WR11 2ND

- Grade II listed 17th-century character cottage
- Exposed beams and wood-burning stove
- Tucked away position close to the town
- Oozing with character and charm
- Two ensuite bedrooms
- Generous and secluded private garden
- Riverside walks nearby

Tucked away in a wonderfully private setting, this beautiful Grade II listed 17th-century cottage is a rare piece of historic Evesham, combining a remarkable sense of seclusion with the convenience of being close to the town centre and riverside walks.

Approached via a peaceful tree-lined lane, the cottage feels almost hidden away. Its black-and-white timber-framed exterior immediately hints at the character within, where exposed beams, original timbers and a wood-burning stove create a home with genuine warmth and atmosphere.

At the heart of the cottage is the open-plan living and dining room. Extensive exposed beams, wooden floors and the wood-burning stove make this an especially inviting space in the winter months, while in warmer weather the cottage opens onto its secluded garden.

On the ground floor, the kitchen adjoins the living space along with a second bedroom with its own en-suite shower room.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom is a peaceful and characterful retreat with its own en-suite bathroom and lovely green outlook. The arrangement of a bedroom and bathroom on each floor also provides a useful degree of separation and privacy.

The generous garden is one of the cottage's most special features. The garden feels remarkably secluded, with mature trees and established planting creating a green outlook with very little sense of the surrounding town. From the cottage the garden provides a peaceful outlook, and the large patio offers a lovely spot for outdoor dining or simply enjoying the view.
