CHESTERTONS

A well-presented three-bedroom apartment located within the popular and historic area of Mortlake, offering spacious and practical accommodation ideal for families or couples. The property features a bright and comfortable living area and a separate kitchen which is well laid out with good storage and workspace, making it practical for everyday living.

The apartment offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, providing flexibility for family use, guests, or a home office, as well as a modern bathroom. Additional benefits include good natural light throughout, neutral décor, and convenient internal layout designed for comfortable day-to-day living.

There are communal patio gardens and the benefit of your own locked ground storage unit ideal for bikes, sports equipment or children's buggies etc.

Ashleigh House is well positioned for easy access to local amenities, including shops, supermarkets, cafes, and restaurants on nearby White Hart lane and Sheen Lane. The area benefits from good transport links being in between both Mortlake and Barnes Bridge Stations. The building is located opposite a small park and the River Thames, making this a convenient and well-connected place to live.

Offered for sale with no onward chain and vacant possession.
