GUIDE PRICE - £280,000 - £300,000

Set within the ever-popular Lee Chapel North area, this two bedroom terraced house delivers space, light and potential in equal measure — and with no onward chain, you can move at a pace that suits you.

The property opens with a handy entrance porch (perfect for the collection of coats and shoes), leading into a generously sized lounge/diner that's made for both relaxed evenings and hosting friends without anyone fighting for space. The kitchen is well laid out with plenty of storage, while the real showstopper is the large conservatory — a bright, versatile space that effortlessly extends the home and invites the garden in.

Upstairs, you'll find two well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom, offering comfortable accommodation whether you're starting out, scaling down or somewhere in between.

Outside, the rear garden is a genuine blank canvas, complete with brick-built storage sheds — ideal for bikes, tools or those "I'll get round to it" projects. Whether you're dreaming of summer barbecues, a landscaped retreat or simply somewhere to unwind, the space is ready and waiting.

There's also the added reassurance of a Vaillant boiler installed around 2020, bringing a modern touch to the home's practical side.

Well located for local schools and everyday amenities, this is a home that quietly ticks all the boxes — and leaves just enough room for you to make it your own.
