EXTERNALLY

One of the main feature of this property is its tucked away secluded location, initially approached via a council maintained tarmac no-through road, ending at the adjacent property, with then a hard based track skirting off to the left leading to the property, which we would advise is accessed by 4x4's only. This leads to a gravel forecourt with private gated private parking, two substantial stone barns with conversion potential (subject to any necessary consents).

RANGE 1

Comprise a former coach house and adjoining cow shed, partly re-roofed

RANGE 2

Being a former stable with adjoining loose box with potential to be converted in to a garage.

THE LAND

To the rear of the cottage is a parcel of level land, having been used for the sustainable lifestyle of the current occupier with Polycrub polytunnel, vegetable beds, willow plantation for bio mass production, and an impressive traditional apple orchard with some lovely varieties Comprising of heritage Welsh/English cider culinary and desert apples, including some perry and pears. Originally planted for cider production. One notable tree is Kingston Black cider.

The Paddocks have been gradually restored and maintained throughout the current owners possession with drainage and hedging works carried out.

SERVICES

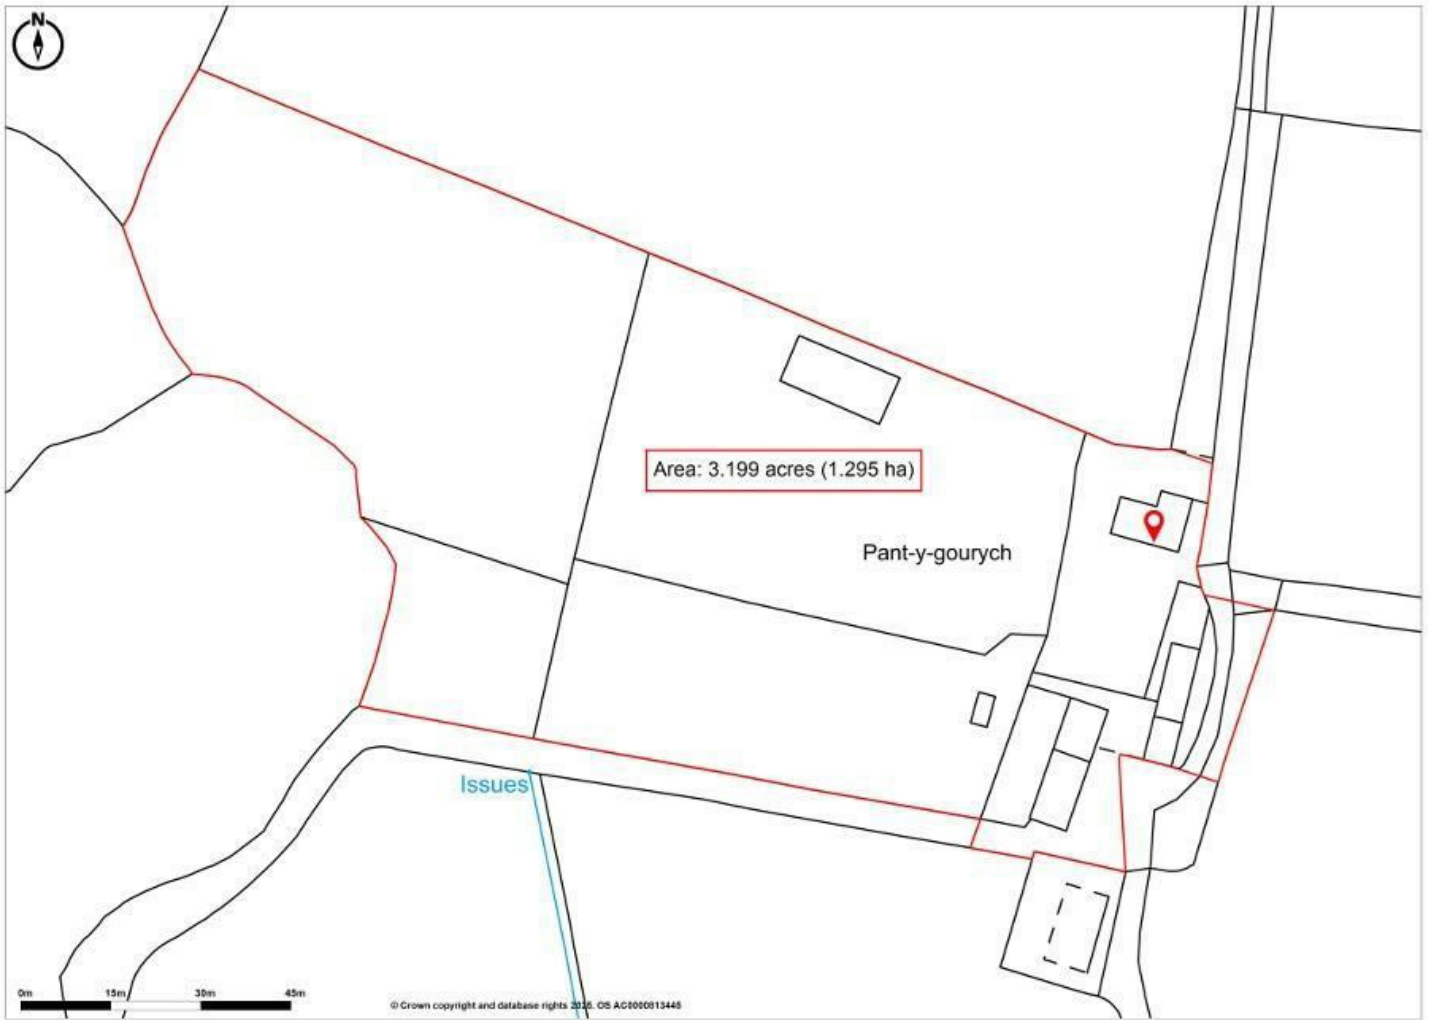

We are informed the property is connected to mains electricity with a solar pv array, mains water, private drainage. The property has recently been subject to an Eco 4 Improvement Grant to include the provision of air source heating. Awaiting new updated EPC rating.
