A superb retirement apartment is located within a popular development, offering a peaceful and welcoming community atmosphere. Positioned on the desirable garden level, the apartment features two spacious double bedrooms, ideal for comfortable living. The modern bathroom includes a bath and a separate shower, providing convenience and relaxation.

The bright and airy kitchen boasts ample storage space and overlooks the beautifully maintained communal gardens. For those who enjoy outdoor living, the apartment includes a private patio that adjoins the gardens, offering a tranquil spot to relax and unwind.

Residents can enjoy the benefits of a communal lounge with a kitchenette, perfect for hosting or participating in regular social activities. There is also a visitor suite available, and parking is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Additional features include lift access to the garden level, an in-house laundry room operated on a rota basis, and 24/7 emergency pull cords for peace of mind. The full-time on-site house manager is available to assist with any needs, and the development is ideally positioned within a level walk of Nailsea Town Centre, providing easy access to local amenities.

This property offers the perfect balance of independence and support in a friendly and well-maintained environment.

Spacious retirement apartment with garden-level access, private patio, modern amenities, communal areas, parking, and on-site management, positioned close to Nailsea Town Centre.
