Situation:

Surrounded by spectacular countryside, Moretonhampstead is an ancient market town nestled in the heart of Dartmoor National Park, and an ideal base for outdoor activity holidays in West Devon. The town is home to a thriving crafts community with a number of open studios and galleries that you can visit. The Parish Church of St Andrew is situated next to Green Hill, a lovely art gallery and exhibition space, backed by open fields and stunning moorland. At St Andrew's Church you can also find The Sentry, a children's playpark, surrounded by beautiful views of Dartmoor.

There are excellent town centre amenities including several public houses, village shops, a hairdresser and numerous independent retailers. Access on to the A38 at Drumbridges roundabout is only 9 miles distant, providing convenient access into Exeter and beyond.

Description:

This charming semi-detached house occupies an extremely convenient position within an easy walk of the excellent Town Centre amenities. The surprisingly spacious accommodation is well planned, and offers a great degree of natural light. Further, there is a useful loft space, suitable for a number of informal uses. The largest of the three first floor bedrooms has been bisected to create an office space or occasional fourth bedroom.

The gardens are delightful, the front providing good distance from the no through road. The rear garden is fence enclosed and is accessed through a sunny conservatory extension. There is plentiful unrestricted on street parking. Viewing highly recommended.

Consumer Protection from Unfair Trading Regulations 2008

- 1) These particulars are set out for the interested parties and purchasers as a guideline only. They are intended to give a fair description but not to constitute an offer or contract.
- 2) All descriptions, dimensions, distances, orientations and other statements/facts are given in good faith but should not be relied upon as being a statement or representation of facts.
- 3) Nothing in these particulars shall be deemed to be a statement that the property is in good condition or otherwise nor that any services are in good working order. The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. Interested applicants are advised to make their own enquiries and investigations before finalizing their offer to purchase.
- 4) The photographs appearing in these sales brochures show only certain parts and aspects of the property at the time the photographs were taken. Aspects may have been changed since the photographs were taken and it should not be assumed that the property remains precisely as displayed in the photographs. Items shown in photographs are not included unless specifically mentioned within the sales particulars. They may however be available by separate negotiation.
- 5) Any area measurements or distances referred to herein are approximate only.
- 6) Where there is reference in these particulars to the fact that alterations have been carried out, or that a particular use is made of any part of the property, this is not intended to be a statement that any necessary planning, building regulations or other consents have been obtained and these matters must be verified by any intending purchaser.
- 7) Descriptions of a property are inevitably subjective and the descriptions contained herein are used in good faith as an opinion and not by way of statement of fact. If there are any points of particular importance that need clarifying before viewing please do not hesitate to contact this office.
- 8) References to the tenure of a property are based on information supplied by the seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A buyer is advised to obtain verification from a solicitor and before finalizing their offer should make their own enquiries and investigations. Buyers should check the availability of any property and make an appointment to view before embarking on any journey.
