Location

39 The Street a Grade II Listed thatch cottage set in a superb position within the centre of the desirable village of Brandeston.

The sought after village of Brandeston, lies around the upper reaches of the River Deben. The village itself is best known locally for its association with Brandeston Hall, the preparatory school to Framlingham College. Framlingham itself, with its fine Medieval castle, interesting selection of local shops and good choice of schooling, lies about three miles to the north-east.

The market town of Woodbridge lies about nine miles to the east and the County Town of Ipswich is about thirteen miles to the north. Inter City trains from Ipswich to London's Liverpool Street Station take just over the hour. The Heritage Coast, and the popular centres of Aldeburgh and Thorpeness, are within half an hour's drive.
