Description

This charming cob-built cottage/bungalow offers a lovely combination of character, space and modern living, together with a particularly impressive garden and double garage. The property retains a number of attractive period features, adding warmth and character throughout, while also benefiting from a range of modern improvements. The property is approached via a useful entrance porch which leads into a welcoming hallway, providing access to the main living accommodation and bedrooms.

The good-sized lounge is a comfortable and inviting reception room, with plenty of space for both relaxing and entertaining. A purpose-built fireplace provides an attractive focal point and complements the property's period character. The master bedroom is a generous room benefiting from a feature bay window, allowing plenty of natural light to flood in, while bedroom two is positioned to the rear of the property and is also well proportioned.

The modern shower room is well presented and provides a contemporary and practical space. There is also a good-sized dining room, offering ample room for a dining table and chairs and making an ideal space for family meals and entertaining. From the dining room, there is a natural flow through into the newly fitted, modern kitchen.

The kitchen has been thoughtfully designed with a range of contemporary units and modern appliances, including an induction hob. A window provides good natural light, while a door gives direct access to the rear garden, making the kitchen particularly convenient for everyday living and entertaining.

Outside, the property really comes into its own, with a really good-sized garden offering excellent space for outdoor dining, gardening, children and relaxation. The garden provides a wonderful extension to the living accommodation and is sure to be a major attraction for prospective buyers.

Further benefits include the double garage, providing secure parking, excellent storage and useful additional space. Overall, this is a charming and individual cob-built cottage/bungalow which successfully combines period features and traditional character with modern conveniences, generous outside space and excellent practical amenities.
