Rules on letting this property

Properties can be rented if they have an energy rating from A to E.

If the property is rated F or G, it cannot be let, unless an exemption has been registered. You can read guidance for landlords on the regulations and exemptions \(https://www.gov.uk/guidance/domestic-private-rented-property-minimum-energy-efficiency-standard-landlord-guidance\).

Energy efficiency rating for this property

This property's current energy rating is D. It has the potential to be C.

See how to improve this property's energy performance.

The graph shows this property's current and potential energy efficiency.

Properties are given a rating from A (most efficient) to G (least efficient).

Properties are also given a score. The higher the number the lower your fuel bills are likely to be.

For properties in England and Wales:

the average energy rating is D
 the average energy score is 60

Score	Energy rating	Current	Potential
92+	A
81-91	B
69-80	C		79 C
55-68	D	67 D
39-54	E
21-38	F
1-20	G

criteria applies:-

If you are employed, you will pay PAYE and have a contract of employment and wage slips.

If you are self-employed and work for yourself or a contractor we will require an accountant's reference to prove your earnings. If you do not use an accountant we will need to see sight of SA302 forms, which state your earnings.

We will use the nett income or nett profit figure for the purpose of carrying out the financial referencing; we cannot use the gross figure.

If you are employed by a company, either M & P Estates Ltd or Rent4Sure will contact your HR or Personnel Department. The following information will be required:-

- 1) Is the applicant in permanent employment
- 2) Employment start date
- 3) Employment end date
- 4) Is the applicant's contract greater than the lease term
- 5) Are the salary details as stated
- 6) Is the salary as reported
- 7) Confirmation of job title

Once the reference process and safety checks have been completed a date can be agreed for you to move into your new home.

The Tenancy Agreement and supporting documents will be sent to you. This will give you the opportunity to take advice from either a Solicitor or Citizens Advice Bureau if you do not understand the terms and conditions of the documentation. Once you have signed and paid both your damage deposit and first month's rent the agreement becomes legally binding.

Utilities

M&P Estates Ltd will write to the gas, electricity and water suppliers notifying them of meter readings at the commencement of the tenancy. We will also write to the local authority for council tax purposes. Please note that we strongly recommend that you also inform the suppliers to ensure that your details have been received and processed.

Protection

The Landlord is not responsible for insuring any of your personal belongings, therefore we strongly recommend that you obtain adequate contents insurance.

Other Fees

To pay the Landlord's reasonable costs incurred as a result of any breach of the terms of the tenancy by the Tenant including any bank charges incurred in relation to non-payment of Rent and the full cost of taking legal advice and legal action in relation to any breach of the terms of the tenancy by the Tenant

To pay the reasonable costs of the Landlord where the Tenant requests early termination of the tenancy, and the Landlord has accepted the request, or where the Tenant fails to give the legally required notice to end a periodic tenancy

To pay the reasonable costs of the Landlord where the Tenant requests a variation to the tenancy
