Haliburton Road, TW1

The ground floor features a stunning double through reception and dining room, complete with an elegant fireplace, sleek integrated storage and plantation shutters. The double doors open directly onto the garden from this room, creating a wonderful flow for entertaining. To the rear, the recently renovated kitchen offers built in appliances, generous storage, and a breakfast bar perfect for busy mornings or casual dining.

On the first floor, the spacious principal bedroom benefits from a contemporary en suite shower room and large integrated wardrobes. This level also hosts a generous family bathroom and a further double bedroom, again with excellent wardrobe space. The top floor has been expertly converted and comprises two additional double bedrooms, offering flexible accommodation for family and guests. The spacious rear garden features a dedicated decked dining and entertaining area, as well as a larger than usual home office at the rear, ideal for working from home. There is further potential to extend into the side return (STPP), providing scope to enhance the ground floor living space even further.
