A rare opportunity to acquire a family home in the heart of Barnes, offering huge potential for refurbishment and extension.

This attractive period house retains many original features and provides generous proportions throughout. Arranged over two floors, the property currently comprises two spacious reception rooms with feature fireplaces, well-sized kitchen overlooking the garden, a utility area, four bedrooms and two bathrooms.

There is a 44ft private rear garden with direct access from the main reception room and kitchen.

With a footprint of over 1,500 sq ft, there is further potential to increase living space through a loft conversion and side extension (subject to planning permission). This allows buyers to tailor the property to their personal requirements, whether creating a large open-plan kitchen/dining area or additional bedrooms and bathrooms.

Elm Grove Road is a sought-after residential street in Barnes, moments from the High Street, duck pond, walks along the River Thames and outstanding local schools. Barnes Bridge station is within easy reach, providing easy access into central London.
