The ground floor begins with a welcoming entrance porch leading into a generous hallway, where feature wood-effect flooring, decorative mouldings and the original staircase create an impressive first impression.

The lounge is undoubtedly one of the home's showstopping spaces. Filled with natural light from the striking bay window, the room features an exquisite decorative ceiling with ornate plasterwork and a soft blue finish, intricate corning and a magnificent original fireplace. The elegant neutral décor and carefully selected furnishings complement the period character perfectly, creating a sophisticated yet wonderfully comfortable reception space.

The dining room offers a further impressive reception space, centred around another beautiful original fireplace with an ornate tiled surround and decorative detailing. A feature floral wallpaper adds warmth and character, while French doors open directly onto the courtyard, creating a wonderful connection between the interior and exterior and allowing the room to be effortlessly opened up when entertaining.

A particularly impressive feature of the property is the converted garage to the rear, which has created a substantial additional bedroom with its own en-suite shower room. Bedroom three provides a further well-proportioned bedroom, ideal for family living or as a versatile guest room.

Completing the first floor is the family bathroom, featuring a fitted bath with overhead shower, WC and wash hand basin. Decorative tiling adds character, while the generous layout provides a practical bathroom for everyday family life.

The staircase continues to the second floor, where a fifth bedroom provides a peaceful and private retreat beneath the eaves. The room benefits from a Velux-style roof window, creating a bright and airy space, together with its own en-suite shower room and useful eaves storage.

Externally, the property enjoys a front garden with steps leading to the entrance, while the rear arrangement includes a private, low maintenance courtyard accessed via the rear lobby and dining room.
