£550,000

Set within the coastal village setting of Mumbles, this home enjoys a rare position where daily life is shaped by sea air, shoreline walks and a welcoming community atmosphere. Independent cafés, local schools and everyday amenities are close at hand, while the wider connections of Swansea are within easy reach. The nearby coastline and access to the wider Gower landscape offer a constant sense of openness and escape.

From its elevated position, the property captures sweeping views across Mumbles Bay and the wider expanse of Swansea Bay, a backdrop that can be enjoyed from the front garden, principal reception space and main bedroom.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and begins with a porch leading into a central hallway. The ground floor offers a lounge, dining room and kitchen, each arranged to support both day to day living and entertaining. Upstairs, three bedrooms are complemented by a family bathroom.

The plot is generous, extending to approximately a quarter of an acre, giving a sense of space uncommon in such a coastal location. To the front, there is parking and a detached outbuilding providing useful storage and additional flexibility. The front garden is a particular highlight, offering seating areas positioned to take in the uninterrupted coastal outlook. Steps lead down to further lawned gardens with established planting and a greenhouse, while the rear provides a patio rising to a rockery style garden with mature shrubs and trees.

A home defined by its setting, scale and outlook, offering a coastal lifestyle that feels both open and grounded.
