Why we LOVE it!!!

We absolutely love this property, as it is not often that a detached true bungalow comes to the market in such a fantastic Buxton location and in a condition where you can simply move straight in.

The slightly elevated position gives the property some fabulous rooftop views across Buxton, which really do add something special and are a lovely feature to enjoy from home. We also love the generous garden, which gives you plenty of outdoor space without taking away from the convenience of having everything arranged on one level.

For us, it is the combination of the location, the views, the spacious accommodation and the excellent size garden that makes this such a special bungalow and a lovely place to call home.
