Guide price £525,000

A very well presented and thoughtfully extended 3/4 bedroom semi detached house which has gas central heating and double glazing throughout.

The impressive accommodation comprises: Entrance hall, fitted kitchen with built-in in appliances, large dual aspect sitting room, downstairs cloakroom, separate dining room with stairs leading up to a very useful room which could be an office, playroom or a fourth bedroom. The majority of the first floor rooms are approached via a staircase from the entrance hall where there are three well proportioned bedrooms and a modern bathroom.

The property is located at the end of a small residential cul-de-sac and has an 'L' shaped driveway which provides off-street parking for two to three cars. The rear garden is larger than average and also extends to one side of the house where there is a raised decked patio area.

This property is ideally located for commuters, being only a short walk to the mainline railway station which offers an excellent service on the Cambridge to Liverpool St. line with a link to Stansted Airport. The town centre is also a short walk and it has an extensive range of shopping, eating and entertainment establishments. Windhill 21 Primary School is also within walking distance.
