Disclaimer Important Notice: In accordance with the Property Misdescriptions Act (1991) we have prepared these Sales Particulars as a general guide to give a broad description of the property. They are not intended to constitute part of an offer or contract. We have not carried out a structural survey and the services, appliances and specific fittings have not been tested. Neither has the Agent checked legal documentation to verify the legal status of the property or the validity of any guarantees. All photographs, measurements, floorplans and distances referred to are given as a guide only and should not be relied upon for the purchase of carpets or any other fixtures or fittings. Lease details, service charges and ground rent (where applicable) are given as a guide only and should be checked and confirmed by your solicitor prior to exchange of contracts. Please note, if the property is being purchased as buy to let, you should consider whether selective licensing is applicable.

A non-refundable purchaser administration fee will be payable by the successful buyer to cover APL checks, identity verification, and proof of funds validation, with full details provided upon offer acceptance.

Russell Close

Thorney, Peterborough, PE6 0SW

Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac within the desirable village of Thorney, this well-presented semi-detached bungalow offers versatile family living across approximately 915 ft². The property features a bay-fronted living room, two modern shower rooms, and a high-specification Wren kitchen with quartz worktops and integrated Neff appliances, opening into a spacious family/dining room. With three ground floor bedrooms and two further double bedrooms upstairs, the layout is ideal for flexible living. Outside benefits include off-road parking for up to three vehicles, a low-maintenance south-facing garden, and useful outbuildings. Further advantages include owned solar panels with battery storage, enhancing energy efficiency. Conveniently located within walking distance of local amenities, this is an excellent village home.

Nestled within the charming cul-de-sac of Russell Close in the sought-after village of Thorney, this beautifully presented semi-detached bungalow offers an exceptional opportunity for family living in a historic yet well-connected setting near Peterborough. Originally built in 1965, the property has been thoughtfully enhanced to provide approximately 915ft² of versatile and well-appointed accommodation. Upon entering, a welcoming and spacious entrance hall sets the tone, leading through to a bright bay-fronted living room—an inviting space ideal for relaxation. A contemporary ground floor shower room adds everyday convenience, while the impressive Wren kitchen is a true focal point, featuring elegant quartz work surfaces and a range of integrated Neff appliances, perfect for modern living. The former conservatory has been expertly converted into a generous family and dining room, creating a flexible and sociable space ideal for entertaining or everyday family life. The ground floor hosts three well-proportioned bedrooms, while a carpeted staircase rises to the first floor where a spacious landing—ideal for use as a study area—leads to two further double bedrooms, offering excellent flexibility for growing families or those working from home. Externally, the property benefits from a block-paved frontage providing off-road parking for up to three vehicles. To the rear, the south-facing garden has been designed for low maintenance, offering an ideal space to enjoy sunny days. Two substantial outbuildings further enhance the property, one currently used as a utility area, presenting excellent potential for storage, workspace, or future development. Enhancing both efficiency and sustainability, the home is equipped with owned solar panels and battery storage, helping to reduce energy costs and environmental impact. Ideally positioned within walking distance of local village amenities, this superb home perfectly balances modern comfort with the charm of village living, making it an excellent choice for families seeking a welcoming community.
