The property begins with a porch which leads into a welcoming entrance hall, complete with useful built-in storage. To the front of the home is a charming bay fronted lounge featuring a characterful fireplace, creating a cosy and inviting living space. The dining room sits to the rear and also benefits from a feature fireplace, along with French doors that open out onto the garden, making it an ideal space for family meals and entertaining. The large kitchen/breakfast room provides ample workspace and storage, with plenty of room for informal dining. From here, the layout continues into a practical utility room which also offers a courtesy side door leading directly into the garden. Upstairs, the landing provides further built-in storage and leads to four bedrooms. The bay fronted master bedroom is a particularly generous space and benefits from ample built-in wardrobes. Two further double bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, while the fourth bedroom, a single, features a bay window that allows natural light to flood the room. A well presented three piece family bathroom completes the first floor. Externally, the property boasts a generous rear garden which offers excellent space for outdoor seating, entertaining and family activities. There is also the benefit of an external WC. Additional features include double glazing and gas central heating.

Situated on the desirable Northumberland Crescent in Southend-on-Sea, the property enjoys an enviable outlook over Southchurch Park. The home falls within catchment of Greenways Primary School and Southchurch High School, whilst also being within easy reach of several highly regarded grammar schools. The location offers convenient access to the nearby Southend Seafront, along with local amenities and bus links. Rail connections can be found at Southend East Railway Station, providing direct routes into London and surrounding areas.
