The Location

Alfreton is a convenient and popular town due to the excellent range of amenities on offer. Schooling at all levels, including a nursery, is available, together with shopping facilities including banks, post office and a large supermarket. Alfreton also boasts a well equipped leisure centre for those enjoying sporting activities and an entertainment centre including ten pin bowling, soft play and sports facilities. It also offers a local golf course and recreational park.

Other nearby places of interest include some delightful rural villages to the west heading towards Matlock and Matlock Bath, both well worthy of a visit due to the impressive scenery and attractions on offer. Carsington Reservoir is situated a short drive away and also offers a range of outdoor pursuits including various water sports.

Due to its location close to the A38 and M1, Alfreton provides swift onward travel to other regional centres including Nottingham, Derby, Chesterfield and Sheffield.
