MD Properties are thrilled to be advertising this beautiful 2-bedroom bungalow, which presents a practical living space with modern amenities. The property features one bathroom and a spacious reception area and dining area, providing ample room for relaxation and entertainment. The kitchen is equipped with an oven/hob and a fridge freezer, ensuring convenience for daily cooking needs. Full double glazing throughout the property enhances energy efficiency, while the gas central heating has a newly installed Combi boiler. The Loft has an additional storage area as this is fully boarded out.

The bungalow includes off-road parking in front of the garage, a garage space offering secure storage and parking options. The garden provides a pleasant outdoor space for leisure and gardening activities. The External garden is low-maintenance, with a large, spacious front garden.

Situated in Stafford, the property benefits from proximity to local amenities, including shops, schools, and public transport links and is extremely close to the M6 for commuting.

Please note these pictures are from the previous listing as this property is currently tenanted; however, they are due to vacate.
