4 Tobruk Close, Enham Alamein Andover, Guide Price £380,000

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION BY Mr Wayne Turpin

Positioned in the picturesque Hampshire village of Enham Alamein with countryside surrounding, Graham & Co are delighted to bring to the market this stylish semi-detached village home which has been extensively upgraded and offered for sale in excellent condition throughout. The accommodation is set over two floors and benefits from an entrance hall, sitting room, impressive fitted kitchen with dining area, pantry and utility, ground floor shower room. To the first floor there are three bedrooms and a newly fitted bathroom, gas central heating and double glazing. Outside there are good sized gardens, well landscaped with lawn and shingled areas, all enclosed.

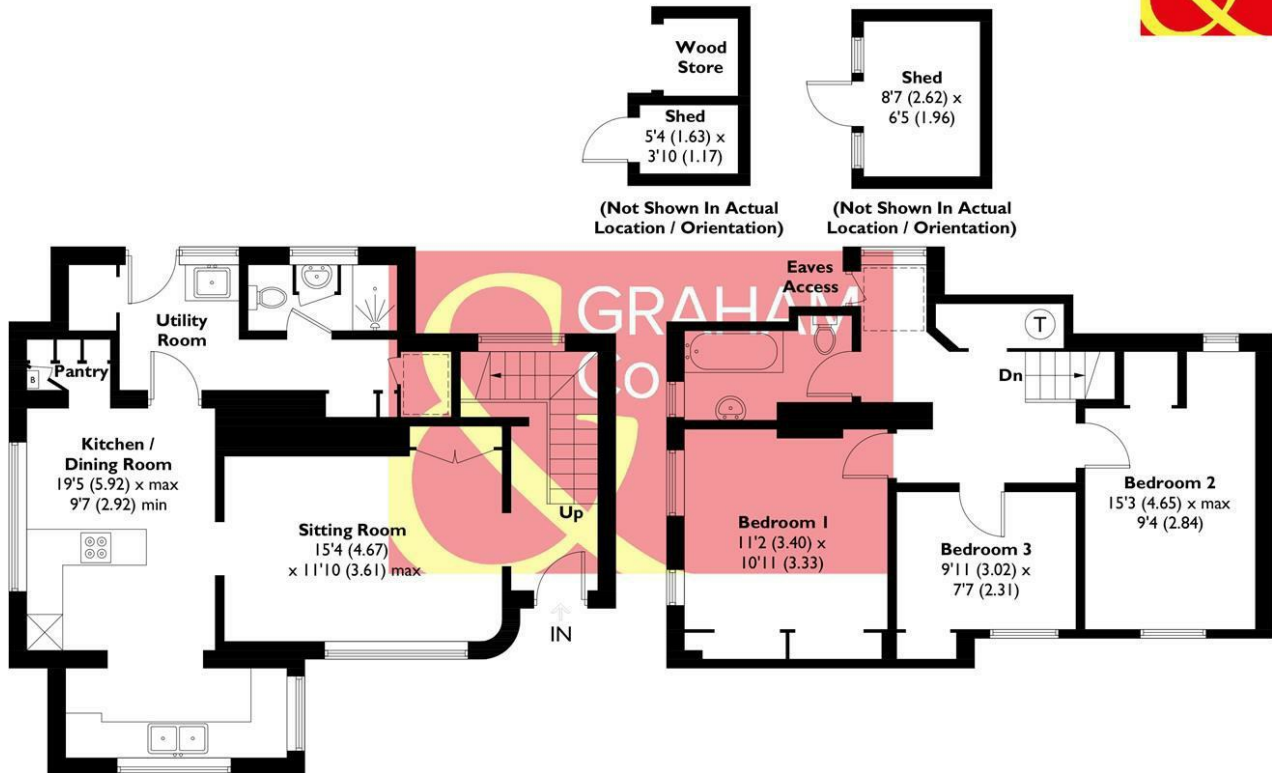

The leafy village of Enham Alamein nestles with the rolling hills of the Hampshire just under three miles north of historic Andover, now the principal town within the Test Valley Borough. Given the name Alamein after the World War II when the village of Enham received a substantial contribution from the grateful people of Egypt, the village church, St. George's is now internationally regarded as the memorial church for the battle of El-Alamein
