STEP INSIDE

29 Stow Park Avenue

Stepping inside Ty Carreg, you are immediately welcomed by a sense of grandeur and space, with original Victorian mosaic flooring setting a refined first impression. The central hallway leads to a magnificent mahogany staircase, rising elegantly through the home and acting as a true architectural focal point. A series of beautifully proportioned reception rooms provide flexibility for both formal entertaining and everyday living. Period features such as high ceilings, original marble fireplaces, and large sash windows enhance the character throughout. The bespoke kitchen to the rear is both stylish and functional, flowing effortlessly into a stunning orangery flooded with natural light. This open plan space creates an exceptional environment for dining and socialising. Across the upper floors, seven generous bedrooms and well-appointed bathrooms offer comfort, privacy, and versatility.

STEP OUTSIDE

29 Stow Park Avenue

The outdoor space provides a sense of privacy and tranquillity, ideal for both relaxation and entertaining. There is ample space for outdoor dining, social gatherings, or simply enjoying the views. The garden is designed to be both practical and visually appealing, in keeping with the home's character. The elevated aspect further enhances the sense of openness and light. Overall, the exterior space perfectly supports the lifestyle offered within the property.

Location

Stow Park Avenue is widely regarded as one of Newport's most desirable residential addresses, known for its elegant period homes and tree lined setting. The location offers excellent access to Newport city centre, providing a range of shops, restaurants, and amenities. Highly regarded schools are within easy reach, making the area particularly appealing for families. For commuters, the property benefits from convenient access to the M4 motorway, offering direct routes to Cardiff, Bristol, and London. Newport railway station also provides regular mainline services, further enhancing connectivity. The surrounding area offers a balance of urban convenience and green spaces, with nearby parks and walking routes. This prime position ensures both lifestyle appeal and long-term desirability.
