Hale Drive, Mill Hill, NW7, NW7

£695,000

A rare opportunity to purchase this ideally located chain-free semi-detached family home, situated on this ever-popular residential road within easy reach of the many amenities of Mill Hill Broadway. The property is also positioned within a short distance of the highly regarded Mathilda Marks Kennedy Primary School, making it an excellent choice for families seeking both convenience and quality local schooling.

Arranged over just two floors, the property offers well-balanced accommodation throughout and presents significant potential to extend, subject to the necessary planning permissions (STPP), allowing buyers the opportunity to create a substantially larger family home tailored to their own requirements.

The existing accommodation is arranged to provide three well-proportioned bedrooms, a family bathroom, a fitted kitchen, two separate reception rooms offering versatile living and entertaining space, and a convenient guest WC on the ground floor.

Externally, the property benefits from a private west-facing rear garden. The garden also offers further scope for landscaping or extension potential, subject to planning consent.

This is a fantastic opportunity for both end-users and investors alike, combining a prime location, excellent school catchment, and considerable potential for future improvement and expansion. Sole Agent.
