Rodmell has an excellent public house, a cricket ground and superb country walks beyond, and of course, Monks House, famously Virginia Woolf's residence. The English coast is just 4 miles south and Lewes to the north, is approximately the same distance, with it's historic town centre including an abundance of period properties and attractions, an excellent range of independent shops, cafes and restaurants, 3 superstores and the superb Depot cinema. Lewes mainline Railway Station has services to London Victoria (65 mins), London Bridge (90 mins) and Brighton (15 mins). The property is beautifully tucked away from the road and is approached via its long driveway with electric gates, but also connects easily to Brighton via the village of Kingston.
