Welcome to Chamber Knowle Farm, an extraordinary 18th-century stone farmhouse set within 5.25 acres of private grounds, surrounded by some of the most breathtaking scenery the Peak District has to offer. Nestled in the heart of Peak Forest, within the Peak District National Park, this is a place where life slows down, the views stretch for miles, and every window frames a picture-perfect countryside scene.

Occupying an enviable position within its own land, the farmhouse enjoys complete immersion in its surroundings, with rolling hills, open fields and uninterrupted rural beauty in every direction. There is a palpable sense of peace here; a feeling of being wonderfully removed from the pace of everyday life, yet perfectly placed to enjoy everything this remarkable corner of Derbyshire has to offer.

At the heart of the estate sits the principal farmhouse, complemented by two beautifully appointed holiday cottages, creating a rare opportunity to combine an exceptional country lifestyle with an established income-generating business. Whether enjoyed as a private family retreat, a lifestyle-led business venture, or a blend of the two, Chamber Knowle Farm offers a truly unique way of life in one of the country's most celebrated national park settings.
