More than just an apartment

At Hounslow, community is part of everyday life. Shared spaces, regular events and like-minded people make it easy to connect, if and when you want to.

Spaces for different ways of living

Whether you're here for a few months or longer, we have a room that fits your routine.

Compact Studio

Smart, efficient and thoughtfully designed for comfortable everyday living in London.

Perfect for independent living with everything you need, without unnecessary excess.

Classic Studio

A little more room to settle in.

Designed for residents looking for additional comfort, balance and flexibility during longer stays.

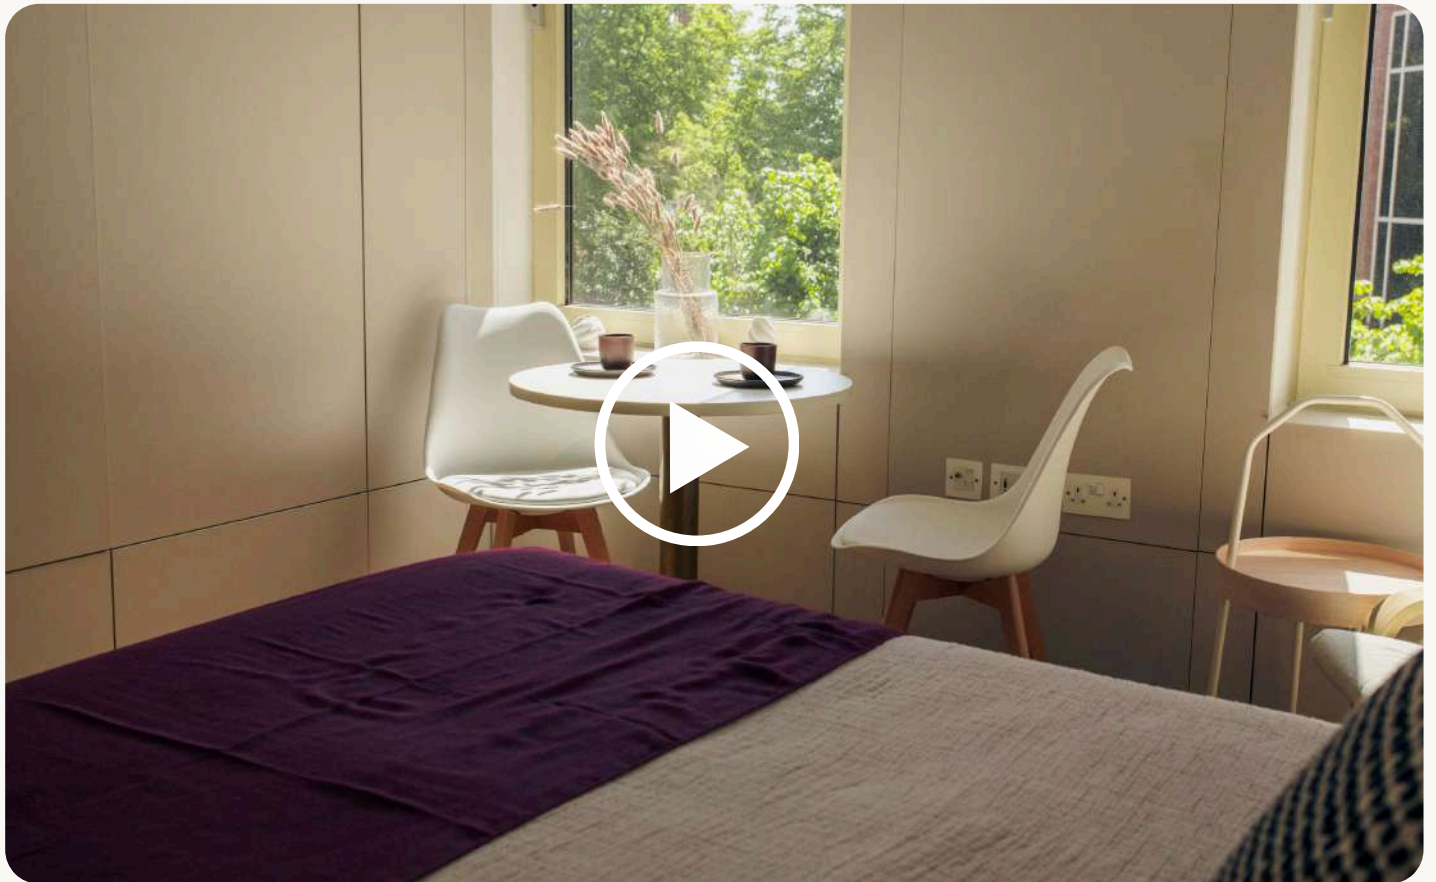

Master Studio

Our most spacious option.

Ideal for those wanting more room to relax, work from home and fully settle into life in London.
