Full details

Portessie is a coastal village situated just a mile from the town of Buckie, in the County of Moray, one of the sunniest and driest regions of Scotland. Buckie and the surrounding area offer a wide range of excellent places to stay, eat, and shop. The Moray Coast is renowned for its breathtaking scenery, long sandy beaches, and abundant wildlife, as well as its opportunities for leisure and recreation, including golf and angling.

Portessie has a primary school, with secondary education available in Buckie. Elgin, Aberdeen, and Inverness are all within easy commuting distance, with train stations at Keith and Elgin providing direct links to Aberdeen and Inverness. Buckie and Elgin also offer major supermarkets, independent shops, and a good range of sporting and recreational facilities. Both Aberdeen and Inverness provide all the amenities expected of a city, including retail parks, rail links, and airports.

Otago is a detached bungalow which borders the local primary school playing field and is close to the general store. The property is accessed via a glazed uPVC door leading into the vestibule with a glazed door opening into the hall. The hall accesses the living room, kitchen, 3 bedrooms and shower room. The hall has two built-in cupboards one with a hanging rail and the second shelved.

The living room is a lovely bright room with a front-facing window and a window overlooking the side garden. An electric fire sits on a tiled hearth.

The dining kitchen is fitted with a selection of base and wall-mounted units with contrasting worktop and tiled splashback. Appliances that will remain include an electric cooker, fridge/freezer, and washing machine. A stainless steel sink with drainer is positioned beneath the rear-facing window, which overlooks the conservatory. From the kitchen, a rear hall leads into the conservatory and also provides access to the floored attic. The conservatory at the rear is a large room overlooking the rear garden and the local primary school playing fields.
