Situated in a sought after residential cul-de-sac close to the centre of the bustling village of St Merryn is 8 Cadoc Close, a detached bungalow of almost 1,300 square feet offering spacious accommodation making for a comfortable family home.

The property benefits from gas central heating, UPVC windows and doors, and low maintenance facias, soffits and guttering.

As illustrated on the accompanying floorplans, the accommodation briefly comprises a storm porch which precedes a spacious reception hall. The accommodation continues to provide a spacious L shaped living/dining room with inset open fireplace with Cornish stone surround. There is a bay window to the front elevation and French doors opening to the patio at the rear. Into the kitchen which comprises an extensive range of floor and wall cabinets and drawers complete with a separate utility room and back door leading to the garden.

To the far end of the house are the three bedrooms, two of which have integral wardrobes and the master with a ensuite shower room. The family bathroom is generous in size. The garage is integral with an electric up and over door.

Externally, 8 Cadoc Close has plenty of off road parking in the form of a block paved driveway. There are lawned gardens to the rear with an area of paved patio. There are fence and well stocked boundaries on both sides with a two of shrubs and small trees to the rear boundary backed by open fields creating a sense of privacy and peace.

8 Cadoc Close would benefit from a programme of modernisation and renovation to bring the property in line with modern-day styles and standards, offering the opportunity to create a superb family home tailored to individual tastes.

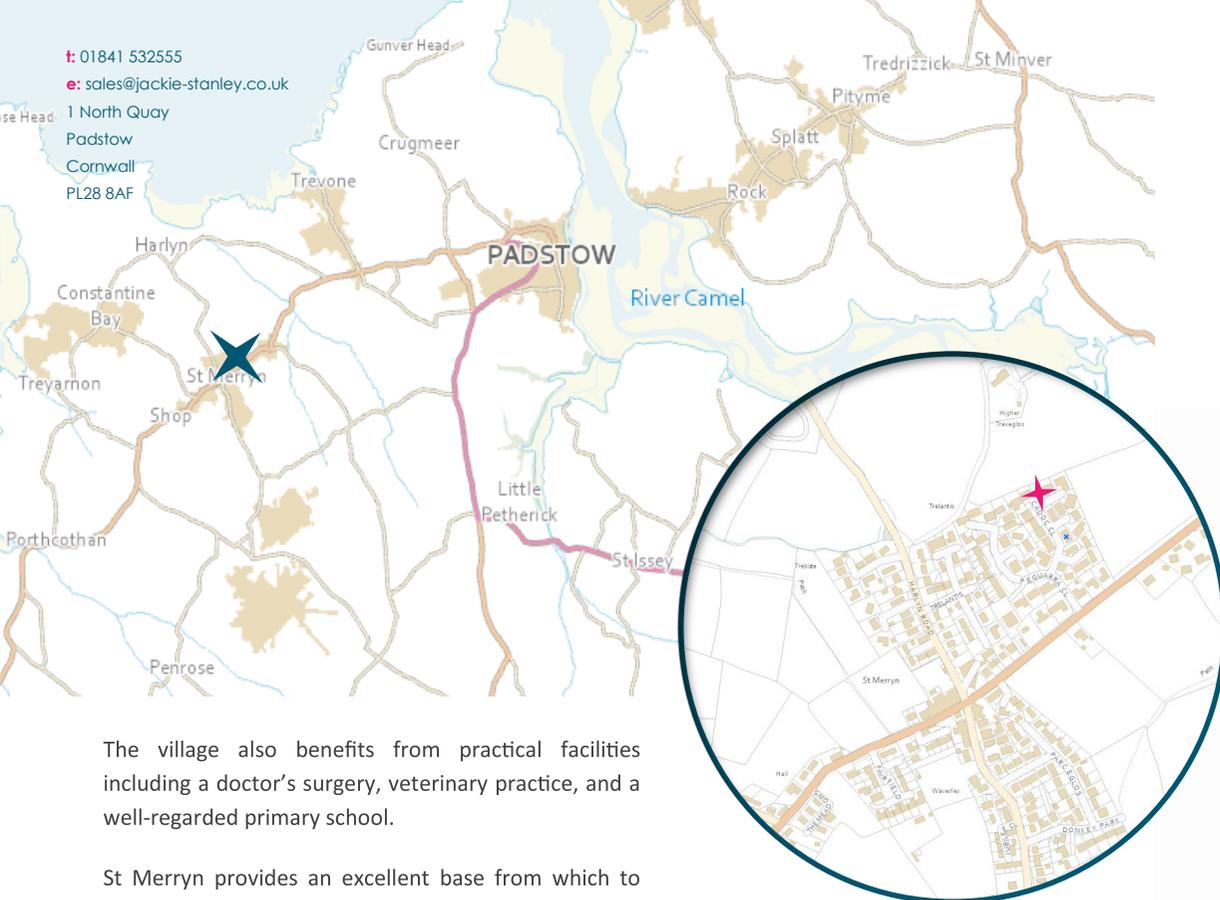

Services to the property include mains gas, water, electricity and drainage. EPC rating D. Council tax band D. Ofcom suggest superfast broadband availability. Ofcom suggest 4G connectivity is available.

The lively and picturesque village of St Merryn is located just inland from the stunning North Cornwall coast. A highly sought-after destination, the village offers an excellent range of everyday amenities including several eateries, a grocery store, a Malcolm Barnecutt Bakery, a petrol station with garage services, and two traditional public houses. Among them is the renowned The Cornish Arms, owned by celebrated chef Rick Stein, serving quality food alongside local ales.
