Surrounded by the beautiful Norfolk Countryside, 12 Norfolk Heights is an easy-to-enjoy coastal bolt hole, presented in clean, modern order and ready for immediate use with no onward chain. Whether you are seeking a simple base for weekends away or a comfortable low-maintenance home, this apartment offers practical living in a relaxed setting.

Inside, the accommodation is neatly arranged, with a comfortable sitting room providing space to unwind, complemented by a charming country-style Shaker kitchen that feels both timeless and functional. The double bedroom offers a calm and restful retreat, while the modern shower room is well finished and ready to use.

Outside, there is the convenience of a communal car park along with a shared drying area, adding to the easy, lock-up-and-leave appeal. A straightforward, well-kept home that makes enjoying time by the coast refreshingly simple.

An old Victorian work house with a lovely feel.

Docking

NORFOLK'S BEST HIDEAWAYS

Docking is one of Norfolk's best hideaways, just four miles from the sea and a short drive from the market towns of Fakenham and Holt.

Dating back to Saxon times, Docking is one of Norfolk's highest points at 272 feet and was once known as 'Dry Docking' due to its lack of drinking water. In the 18th century, a well was sunk, and residents paid a farthing per bucket until mains water was installed in 1936. During World War II, RAF Docking airfield operated nearby, and Docking Hall housed actors Richard Burton, Robert Hardy, and Warren Mitchell.

Today, Docking boasts a strong community with a thriving nursery and primary school, filling the streets with the sound of children playing. The village is well-serviced with a GP surgery, village store with Post Office, playing field, tennis court, bowling green, popular fish and chip shop, and The Railway Inn.

Buyers have a wide range of property options, including traditional brick and flint cottages, classic Georgian houses, and quality new-build homes. One notable development is Four Miles, named for its proximity to Thornham and Brancaster, offering cottages, barns, and apartments designed to blend with the countryside.

Docking residents can enjoy growing their own produce or visit the weekly farmer's market at Ripper Memorial Hall. Held on Wednesday mornings, shoppers come from far afield to fill their baskets with fresh produce from local smallholders and delicacies from Norfolk artisan producers.

Offering the best of coast and country, it's easy to see why Docking is such a sought-after spot.

Note from the Vendor
