Bramley Close is an attractive and well regarded cul de sac on the edge of the popular village of Sandford, it enjoys easy access to the local primary school, village store, All Saints Church and the incredibly popular gastropub 'The Railway Inn', run and owned by renowned local Cider producers' Thatchers. The property has an appealing façade which creates a lovely first impression. A driveway leads to a single garage to the left, and on the drive and to the front of the property there is ample parking for 4/5 vehicles. On the ground floor you will find a good sized lounge which connects through to a handy separate dining room which overlooks the garden. To the rear of the house is a well fitted kitchen/breakfast room with plenty of wall and base units and access to a handy utility room, there is also a useful ground floor cloakroom.

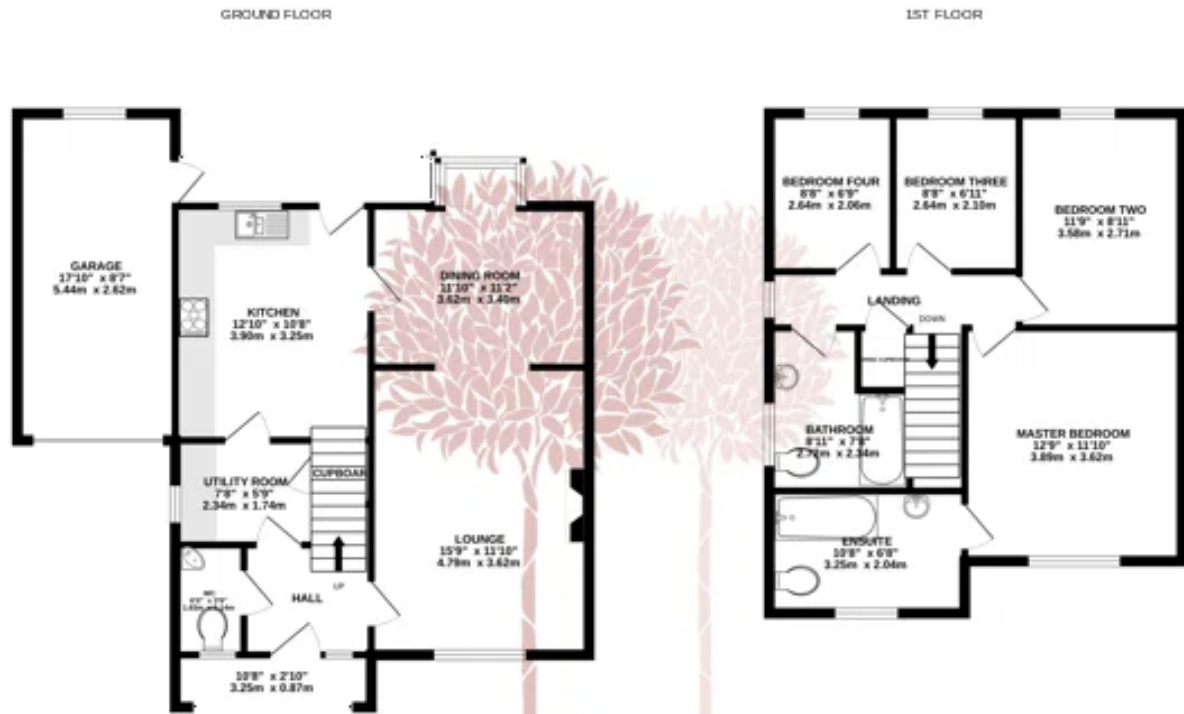

On the first floor you will find four bedrooms and two bathrooms including a generous en-suite to the main bedroom including a bath. The property is generally well presented and benefits from a recently upgraded central heating system along with wood grain effect upvc double glazing.

The rear garden is well enclosed and bordered by mature trees for privacy with access to the rear of the garage, there is a neat patio area and the remainder of the garden is laid to lawn.

What we love about this property... This super family home is just a stone's throw from the delightful Thatchers-owned 'Railway Inn', an extremely popular gastro pub with a lovely outdoor sitting area and great friendly atmosphere.
