About the property

**For sale by public auction on Tuesday 14th April****

Cash buyers only! The property is a purpose-built freehold chapel with attached vestry to the rear. The Chapel was built in 1844 and re-built in approximately 1856 with the vestry being added at a later date. The property is Grade I listed. The chapel accommodation comprises an entrance lobby to the front of the building, main congregational hall with a gallery seating area. To the rear of the main hall there is a large organ which occupies the rear part of the chapel building with small office/dressing rooms to either side. There is a small lean-to, to the side/rear of the main chapel which leads to the vestry building and WC facilities. The chapel building has a pipe heating system which runs through the main congregational area, which is served by an oil boiler located to the side of the building. The vestry building is attached to the rear of the main chapel building with an independent access doorway from the side and access via an internal corridor from the main chapel. The vestry accommodation comprises an open plan congregation area, kitchen and WC facilities. The vestry has radiators throughout which are served by a gas combination boiler located in the kitchen. Peniel Baptist Chapel is located in Cwmavon, a village on the edge of Port Talbot within Neath Port Talbot, Wales. The property is located on Jersey Terrace mixed with residential dwellings.
