

Friary Island, TW19

£5,500,000

Waterview

Arguably one of the finest houses on The Thames, this unique contemporary architectural home exhibits stunning interiors with over 150ft of main river frontage and moorings.

Friary Island is located in the village of Wraysbury within easy reach of Windsor and Maidenhead.

Accommodation is made up of a large entrance hall opening onto an impressive double height reception room with floor to ceiling windows overlooked by an upper mezzanine. The stylish modern kitchen incorporates a family dining area and further reception space with access to the riverside terrace. The principal bedroom suite is also located on this level with dressing room, luxury en-suite and access to the terrace and river views. From the kitchen there is an adjoining utility and boot room with front access. On the upper level the gallery mezzanine level overlooks the living area with panoramic views of the river. There are three double bedrooms, one with en-suite and access to private balcony with a further family bathroom. From the living area a feature spiral staircase incorporates a wine cellar, bar and access to a large open entertaining space beneath the house. Within the grounds is a self contained one bedroom annexe built above a double garage with lower level W.C. There is a further annexe with studio and garage, currently used as staff quarters. The house is approached via electric gates to a sweeping driveway. From the raised river terrace there is a jet pool and steps to the extensive riverside gardens and moorings with an outdoor kitchen/barbeque area.
