WELCOME TO FERNS BARN

Set amidst beautiful rolling countryside and yet within a few minutes' of the popular village of Longtown which straddles the English/Welsh border and yet just 11 miles from Abergavenny. A popular community under the lee of the Black Mountains and Offa's Dyke. The village, which is centred on its Norman Castle enjoys the benefit of a school, a comprehensively stocked village shop/post office and a well respected public house.

Rarely do such delightful properties in this sought after location come onto the open market for sale, Ferns Barn is an imaginatively converted traditional former agricultural stone barn with much character and interesting period features and offers the opportunity to enjoy a rural location overlooking the valley of the Olchon Brook with panoramic views across the valley to Hatterall Hill and down the upper Monnow Valley to the Skirrid mountain in the distance. Facing approximately South/South West the barn enjoys a bright and sunny location with a level garden of just under half an acre.

OUTSIDE

Located off a country lane, via double timber gates which open onto an extensive gravelled driveway with ample parking. A detached, pitched roof double garage provides ideal storage space and could, subject to any necessary planning consents, be converted to provide an office/studio on the first floor. The gardens adjoin an elevated stone flagged terrace, are predominately laid to lawn and offer the opportunity for further planting/landscaping. The views from the garden are quite spectacular making this a perfect peaceful location to enjoy leisure time.

LOCAL AREA
