 GUIDE PRICE £200,000-£250,000 ***

Rarely available in this location, this one-bedroom maisonette occupies the first and second floors of a converted detached house and has its own private garden. Situated close to the coast, it enjoys delightful sea views at the front and views towards Telscombe Tye at the rear. The property has off-road parking plus an attractive and manageable-sized rear garden with summer house, which would also lend itself to use as a home office. Inside has the feel of a mini house with lounge and kitchen/breakfast room downstairs and bedroom and bathroom upstairs, all finished with engineered oak flooring. Within close proximity to local shops on Longridge Avenue and frequent buses into Brighton, this is being sold with a share of the freehold and no onward chain.
