About the location

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Blorengge and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly market, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.
