SALES & LETTINGS

An aerial photograph of a residential neighborhood. A river flows through the center-left of the image, bordered by lush green trees. To the right of the river is a large, rectangular, brownish-yellow plot of land, likely a vacant lot or field, which is the subject of the 'FOR SALE' sign. Surrounding this plot are rows of red-brick houses with white window frames and doors. Some houses have dark roofs, while others have lighter ones. A paved road runs along the right side of the plot. In the background, more houses and greenery are visible under a clear blue sky with a few wispy clouds.
