ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A bright and spacious three bedroom maisonette, with private roof terrace offering 857 sq ft of living space, beautifully arranged over two floors and within close proximity to excellent transport links.

Surcot House is a purpose built development sitting peacefully on Union Road. A popular residential street well placed for the amenities of Clapham High Street and the wide open spaces of Clapham Common. One of the major advantages of this location is its close proximity to a multitude of transport options including Clapham North and Stockwell underground stations and Clapham High Street overground station along with excellent local bus services.
