IF YOU LIVED HERE...

This is an excellent location, with easy access to some of London's most vibrant spots, but first, let's take a look inside...

Your open plan kitchen/lounge/diner forms the heart of the home. The neutral decor enhances the sense of space, while the kitchen area is equally refined, with sleek units and integrated appliances. Thoughtful touches such as brass fittings, recessed lighting and column radiators add character, while south-west-facing windows flood the space with natural light.

Both bedrooms are just as immaculate, with soft carpeting underfoot. The bathroom continues the contemporary feel, featuring stylish tiling and more brass fittings.

Step outside and you'll find yourself perfectly placed to enjoy the best of both Walthamstow and Leyton.

Head south to the Leyton Midland Road arches for a great selection of food and drink, including Burnt, Gravity Well Taproom, Leyton Calling and Chop Shop Tavern.

Closer to home, Bakers Arms offers local favourites such as Bromley's Cafe, Gnarly Vines and the excellent artisan bakery Suba.

Walthamstow Village is around 10 minutes away and packed with even more fantastic options, including Ruff's Bistro, Proud Mary, The Queen's Arms and Peeld.

WHAT ELSE?

- Despite the lively setting, you're close to excellent green space; Hollow Ponds, on the edge of Epping Forest, is within walking distance.
- ou've got two great local pubs nearby: The European, a beautifully refurbished spot serving French-inspired dishes alongside classic Sunday roasts, and The William the Fourth, now run by Exale Brewery with Short Road Pizza in residence - winner of the 2025 National Pizza Award.
