DESCRIPTION

A beautifully presented three-bedroom Victorian town house, recently refurbished to a high standard and situated in one of York's most desirable residential areas. Enjoying a quiet position the property is just moments from the award-winning Bisby Road and within walking distance of Rowntree Park, York city centre and the railway station.

Combining elegant period features with stylish modern finishes, this property offers sophisticated city living in a thriving community. The current owners have undertaken a sympathetic programme of works including a loft conversion, full re-wiring and upgraded plumbing. They have cleverly re-configured the ground floor introducing a stylish new kitchen with a separate utility area and downstairs WC. There is a double reception room with large windows and reclaimed feature fireplace.

To the upper floors are 3 bedrooms and a very generous bathroom with luxury bath and large walk-in shower.

The property which is double glazed throughout, is move-in ready and has been beautifully redecorated. The free-flowing living space is ideal for modern life with light flooding from front to back. There is a delightful courtyard garden which has been professionally landscaped; enjoying a good degree of privacy, this pretty south facing area is generous and comfortable, ideal for al-fresco dining/entertaining.

Situated on a quiet residential street just off Bishopthorpe Road, this property enjoys immediate access to one of York's most celebrated communities, recognised as one of Britain's best high streets for its strong local character and independent businesses. York city centre, the train station, Rowntree Park, and The Knavesmire are all within easy reach, along with delightful riverside walks and highly regarded local schools.
