Bradfield Hall, Bradfield Combust, Bury St. Edmunds IP30 0LU

Guide Price £425,000

A beautifully presented barn-style home forming part of an exclusive country estate, set within approximately 18 acres of communal parkland and offering a unique lifestyle with access to exceptional on-site leisure facilities.

Situated in a stunning parkland setting, the property is a distinctive and characterful home forming part of the prestigious Bradfield Hall estate. The original Grade II listed manor house, understood to date back to 1857 and designed in a Jacobean and Gothic style, now sits at the heart of this thoughtfully converted collection of apartments, cottages and barn conversions.

Approached via a sweeping driveway through mature and protected parkland, the property enjoys an enviable position within this private setting, with allocated parking to the front and additional visitor parking available.

The property offers well-proportioned and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors, extending to approximately 1,475 sq. ft.

The entrance opens into a welcoming hallway with cloakroom and useful boot room. The principal reception space is a generous sitting room, enjoying excellent natural light via a large glazed door opening onto the rear terrace and garden. Timber beams provide character and warmth, creating an inviting living space ideal for both relaxing and entertaining.

The kitchen/dining room is well appointed with a comprehensive range of units, integrated appliances and ample space for dining, creating a sociable hub of the home with direct access to the outside.

On the first floor are three bedrooms, including a spacious principal bedroom with pleasant outlooks over the grounds. Two further bedrooms are served by a well-fitted family bathroom.

The second floor provides an additional bedroom, tucked into the eaves, offering a versatile space ideal as a guest suite, home office or hobbies room, with useful eaves storage and adjoining WC.

Outside

The property benefits from private side and rear gardens, providing excellent areas for outdoor entertaining. Immediately to the rear is a decked terrace, ideal for al fresco dining, leading onto a generous lawned garden enclosed by mature planting and historic brick walling. The wider estate grounds are a particular highlight, extending to approximately 18 acres and comprising established trees (many subject to preservation orders), lawns, meadows and an arboretum. An ancient monument mound and moat add historical interest, while the lake offers the opportunity for fishing.

Residents of Bradfield Hall enjoy shared use of a range of facilities including a tennis court, indoor heated swimming pool, gymnasium and bowling green – a rare and desirable lifestyle offering within a private rural setting.

There is also a garage (in a block of them approx 50 yards away).

Location

Bradfield Combust is a well-regarded Suffolk village, conveniently located for the market town of Bury St Edmunds, which offers an excellent range of schooling, shopping and recreational facilities. The surrounding countryside provides attractive walking and riding opportunities.
