Location

You'd be hard pressed to find another community like Richmond. It's fun, vibrant and a mix of thoroughly interesting and creative types who love their neighbourhood, reflected in the colourful list of coffee shops, delis, independent retail shops, great pubs and the much-loved Richmond Theatre.

This extraordinary city fringe destination was recently deemed the happiest place in London to live and you can see why. With its exceptional public spaces (such as Richmond Park and the Thames Path), award winning restaurants, great schools, and a theatre famous for its productions, there is always something to perk up your day. Heathrow is 20 minutes (on a good day) and Gatwick airport is 55 minutes by train from Richmond station. On that point, Richmond station is ideal for the City - 18 minutes into Waterloo and it also has the District Line Tube. For the hard-core sports fan, this is also the capital of Rugby Union, with Twickenham, (England), the Stoop (Harlequins) and the Old Deer Park (London Welsh) all close by as well as Ham Polo Club.

The Property

This is a home that offers both practicality and pleasure, lock-up-and-leave convenience, a superb central location, and a beautifully finished interior make it ideal for busy professionals, frequent travellers, or anyone wanting a stylish base in one of London's most desirable riverside towns. You can even pull up a chair outside your front door and enjoy a glimpse of the Thames, without ever leaving home.

Tucked away down this pretty cobbled lane which leads from the town centre to the river, it is quintessentially Richmond at its best, surrounded by fabulous pubs and restaurants such as The White Cross and The Ivy, as well as Richmond Green and of course, the River Thames.

The apartment is accessed through secure gates and has its own, very grand front door, so no ugly communal parts to negotiate before you get home.

The flat itself has fabulous high ceilings, completely refurbished and interior designed to provide a high standard of accommodation and oodles of style.

This place will make you very happy indeed.
