York, YO23 1JN
Guide Price £585,000

4 2 2 E

This substantial and characterful home occupies a highly desirable position on Bishopthorpe Road, one of York's most sought-after locations, renowned for its independent shops, cafés, and excellent access to the city centre and railway station. Having been a much-loved family home for many years, the property now offers an exciting opportunity for its next chapter. Rich in period charm, the house features a generous and versatile layout with many original details rarely found today. The ground floor includes a welcoming entrance hall, a traditional fitted kitchen, and a spacious dining room with a feature log burner and pantry. Upstairs, the first floor offers a bright drawing room with a large bay window, alongside a house bathroom and separate shower room. The second and third floors each provide two well-proportioned double bedrooms, all enjoying pleasant views towards the York skyline.

Externally, the property benefits from a raised front forecourt and a private, enclosed rear courtyard garden, accessible via a brick-built alleyway from both the kitchen and Charlton Street.

This is a unique opportunity to acquire a distinctive period home in one of York's most desirable residential locations, and internal viewing is highly recommended.
