IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step inside and you'll find a welcoming hallway leading to two reception rooms, both with timber flooring and period touches. The front reception has a bay window, a traditional fireplace and a deep blue feature wall, while the second reception offers a versatile space for relaxing or entertaining. Towards the rear, the extended kitchen diner is a real highlight, with rich blue cabinetry, wooden worktops, a range cooker and plenty of room for dining. Large doors open onto the garden, where a paved terrace leads to a lawn bordered by established planting. A separate utility room keeps everyday essentials tucked away.

Upstairs, the first floor is home to two generously proportioned bedrooms, both finished in soft, neutral tones. The family bathroom is particularly inviting, with a freestanding bathtub, separate walk-in shower and contemporary fittings, offering a place to unwind.

The second floor provides two further bedrooms, including a spacious principal bedroom with its own ensuite shower room. Skylights bring natural light into the upper level, while eaves storage makes the most of the space. With four bedrooms spread across two floors, there's plenty of flexibility for family life, guests or working from home.

WHAT ELSE?

- Walthamstow Central is a short walk away, offering Victoria line and Overground connections, making journeys into central London convenient.

- Walthamstow Village is nearby, with independent cafés, restaurants and neighbourhood favourites along Orford Road, including The Queen's Arms and The Nag's Head.

- Lloyd Park is within easy reach, home to the William Morris Gallery, landscaped gardens, tennis courts and a popular weekend market.

WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

“I love living in Walthamstow – it’s got such a great mix of things going on. Saturdays are my favourite, with the market in Lloyd Park full of fresh food, handmade bits, and plenty of friendly faces. The new Soho Theatre has brought amazing shows right to our doorstep, and if I fancy a pint, the Blackhorse Beer Mile breweries are perfect for a wander. When I need some fresh air, the Walthamstow Wetlands are just a short stroll away – all that greenery makes you completely forget you’re in London. Plus, with brilliant transport links, it’s so easy to hop on the Tube or Overground and be in Central London in no time at all”.
