Located in the charming and sought-after village of Kingstone, Hereford, this attractive Georgian home offers a wonderful combination of period character, generous accommodation and modern-day comfort, all within a popular village setting. The property provides spacious and versatile accommodation throughout, including four welcoming reception rooms offering excellent space for both everyday family living and entertaining. There are four generously proportioned bedrooms, complemented by two well-appointed bathrooms, making the home ideally suited to growing families or those requiring additional guest accommodation. Beautifully presented throughout, the property retains a wealth of character and original features which enhance its Georgian charm, while thoughtful modern touches ensure comfortable and practical living. Occupying a desirable position, this impressive period property presents an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a characterful family home in an attractive rural setting, while remaining conveniently placed for access to nearby amenities and the wider surrounding area.

Location

The popular village of Kingstone offers an excellent range of local amenities, including a post office, GP surgery, public house, and both primary and secondary schools. Just a short distance away in Allensmore is Locks Garage, a well-regarded local hub offering a One Stop convenience store and petrol station. The property is conveniently situated approximately 6 miles from Hereford City, providing a comprehensive range of shopping, leisure and educational facilities. The renowned book town of Hay-on-Wye is approximately 15 miles away, while the attractive market town of Ross-on-Wye, with access to the M50 motorway, is approximately 17 miles away, making the property well placed for commuters.

Accommodation

The property is approached via a paved pathway leading from the driveway to the entrance porch, which opens directly into the welcoming entrance hall. From here, there is access to the principal ground-floor rooms, with stairs rising to the first floor. To the right is the generously proportioned living room, a comfortable and characterful reception space featuring an original open fireplace with surround, fitted shelving to either side, a window to the front aspect and ample space for large living room furniture. On the opposite side of the hall is the dining room, providing an excellent setting for formal dining and entertaining. This attractive room also enjoys a window to the front aspect and retains an original fireplace with surround. Continuing through to the kitchen, this modern and well-appointed space is fitted with a range of matching base units complemented by cleverly incorporated wall-mounted storage. There is space for an electric Range-style cooker and dishwasher, together with an integrated fridge/freezer. A sink and drainer with Quooker tap sits beneath one of three windows to the rear and side aspects, allowing an abundance of natural light into the room. The kitchen is also generously sized to accommodate a breakfast table and chairs. Located opposite the kitchen is a useful study, fitted with storage units and enjoying a window to the side aspect, providing an ideal space for those working from home. From the kitchen, stairs also descend to a useful dry cellar, offering valuable additional storage. Further along the hallway is a newly fitted cloakroom, comprising a low-level WC and wash hand basin. The utility room, fitted with a range of matching wall and base units providing additional storage, together with a sink and drainer positioned beneath a window to the side aspect. There is also space and plumbing for additional white goods, making this a practical addition to the main kitchen. To the rear of the property is a beautiful orangery, which also provides an additional entrance into the home. Featuring a skylight together with windows and doors opening onto the garden, this light-filled space provides a peaceful spot from which to enjoy the surrounding outlook and gardens. A particular highlight of the accommodation is the impressive family room. Wonderfully versatile and exceptionally spacious, this room lends itself perfectly to both everyday family living and entertaining, with ample space for substantial living and dining furniture. Two skylights, along with windows to the side and rear aspects, create a bright and welcoming environment, while patio doors provide a seamless connection to the garden. This superb addition offers the potential to become the true heart of the home.

From the first-floor landing, the staircase divides to provide access to all four bedrooms and the family bathroom, with a large airing cupboard providing useful additional storage. To the front aspect of the landing is a particularly attractive seating area, positioned beneath a window and providing a peaceful spot for reading or relaxing. The principal bedroom is a generously proportioned double room, benefitting from fitted wardrobes while retaining ample space for additional bedroom furniture. A central original fireplace with surround provides an attractive focal point, complemented by a window to the front aspect. Accessed from the opposite side of the staircase, bedroom two is another well-proportioned double bedroom with ample space for freestanding furniture and windows to both the front and rear aspects, allowing plenty of natural light into the room. Bedroom three is again a comfortable double bedroom and benefits from fitted units surrounding the bed. This room also enjoys its own en-suite bathroom, comprising a bath with shower over, low-level WC and wash hand basin, together with an obscure glazed window to the rear aspect. Bedroom four completes the sleeping accommodation and is another double bedroom, with a window to the side aspect, space for freestanding bedroom furniture and a range of built-in units currently providing useful storage. The family bathroom is finished in a modern style and comprises a separate bath, walk-in shower enclosure, low-level WC and wash hand basin, with an obscure glazed window to the rear aspect providing natural light and privacy.

Outside

The property is approached to the front via a newly laid tarmac driveway, providing ample off-road parking and leading to the double garage. Attractive stone walling forms the front boundary, while the remainder of the front garden is predominantly laid to lawn with a selection of well-positioned mature trees creating an attractive approach and a good degree of privacy. Pedestrian access is available to both sides of the property, leading through to the rear garden. The double garage provides excellent storage and secure parking for vehicles, with additional access to the side and a window to the rear. An electric vehicle charging point is also conveniently positioned nearby. To the rear of the property is a paved patio area, providing an ideal setting for outdoor dining and entertaining. Beyond, the generous garden is predominantly laid to lawn and thoughtfully landscaped with a variety of established trees, shrubs and plants. The garden is arranged over two tiers, defined by attractive stone borders which add character and interest to the outside space. Further features include a well-established pond, together with raised beds ideal for growing vegetables and produce. The garden is enclosed by fencing, creating a private and enjoyable outdoor space that complements the property perfectly.
