Property Details

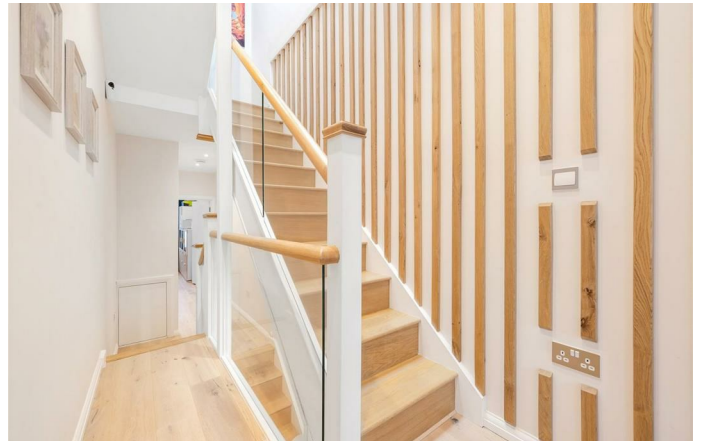

An exceptional five-bedroom, two-bathroom Victorian family home, comprehensively renovated and extended in 2023, with a beautifully landscaped South-West facing garden. Rebuilt back-to-brick with no expense spared, the property benefits from ground floor and loft extensions, full rewire and replumb, soundproofing, a new roof, bespoke oak staircase, underfloor heating, heat recovery ventilation, engineered wood flooring, double glazing and restored period features. A welcoming entrance hall leads to an expansive double reception room, featuring a bay-fronted lounge with fireplace and a versatile rear reception beneath a skylight. A guest WC and utility room sit conveniently lead off. The contemporary kitchen forms a lovely family hub, with quartz worktops, premium Bosch and Siemens appliances and a bright dining area overlooking the garden. On the first floor are three of the bedrooms and a luxurious family bathroom. The upper floors offer a potential principal suite, comprising a spacious bedroom, en-suite shower room and fifth bedroom currently arranged as a dressing room.
