Meet your next student HQ...

This spacious five double bedroom split-level apartment is ready for the 2026–27 academic year — perfect for housemates who want space, style, and a place that actually feels like home (not just somewhere to crash between lectures).

With all the essential furnishings and fitted kitchen appliances included, you can move straight in and get settled — whether that's group dinners, study sessions, or a well-earned night off. Plus, with easy access to the town centre and train station, getting to uni, nights out, or a weekend escape couldn't be easier.

Even better? The property is getting a glow-up before you arrive. Expect fresh décor throughout, brand new flooring in the communal areas, and a sleek new front door to welcome you home in style.

EPC rating D. Available from September 2026.

Homes like this don't hang around — especially ones this student-friendly.
