

BROMPTON
SQUARE
SW3

A spectacularly appointed house, featuring the highest level of home automation, private amenities and interior design. The house has a truly unique vista and position within this sought after garden square address, unusually benefiting from green views to both the front and rear of the property. The aspect the house enjoys is incredibly rare in London, with a sunny raised west facing terrace sitting in between the Brompton Oratory Church and the Holy Trinity Church. The house has been painstakingly refurbished and offers a unique proposition in terms of private accommodation and facilities.
