Property Introduction

Located within this desirable residential area in Camborne is this very well presented detached dormer style bungalow being offered for sale with the added advantage of vacant possession.

Immediately to the front of the property can be found ample off road parking for several vehicles and is also suitable for those with a motorhome with direct access to a single integral garage. Internally, a porchway accesses the additional accommodation including three bedrooms, although the current vendors are utilising the main first floor bedroom, which has an en-suite, as a further reception room where can be enjoyed distant views towards fields.

One of the main features the property offers is a delightful enclosed rear garden which has been tastefully landscaped with a hot tub and barbecue area with the main garden being well stocked with a good range of shrubs, borders along with a greenhouse and two further outbuildings.

Location

Camborne is ideally situated for access to the many popular North coast surfing beaches such as Portreath, Perranporth and St Agnes with the North coast being renowned for its rugged vistas and beautiful clifftop walks.

The city of Truro is approximately fifteen miles distant this being the main centre in Cornwall for business and commerce and offers a good range of high street multiples as well as a variety of independent shops.

The attractive Georgian architecture and cobbled streets lead to many restaurants as well as accessing the piazza which is home to the Hall for Cornwall. Within Camborne itself there are a variety of well known commercial outlets and also a mainline Railway station giving access to London Paddington. The A30 is also nearby making travelling to other parts of the county and beyond that much easier. For families, the beautiful Tehidy woods are also on the doorstep being extremely popular and has a golf course adjacent.
