An opportunity to purchase a detached, three-bedroom reverse level house in an elevated position, enjoying views over the village of Porthleven, the harbour, and out to sea.

Situated in one of the villages most sought-after addresses of St. Peters Way, this detached residence benefits from oil-fired central heating and double glazing. The property occupies an elevated position, allowing it to take full advantage of the stunning outlook over the village, out to sea and towards open countryside.

Externally, a large balcony has been added to allow one to sit back and enjoy the fine out look whilst there are gardens to the front and rear which are mainly laid to lawn and boast well established plants and shrubs.

In brief, the accommodation comprises, on the first floor, a landing, lounge, kitchen/diner, hall, and a WC. On the ground floor, there are three bedrooms along with a shower room.

Prospective purchasers may be interested to know we are advised the residence also benefits from planning permission which has been granted for the replacement of the property and the erection of a new dwelling granted in June 2024. Full details can be found on the Cornwall Council planning portal using the planning reference number - PA24/04106.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize-winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening.
