No Onward Chain....Nestled along a private road in the quaint village of Tillingham, is this charming two-bedroom terraced cottage which offers an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to create a home with character and potential. The picturesque village of Tillingham, is located within the Dengie Peninsula with the closest town being Burnham-On-Crouch which is approximately 8 miles. The village is clustered around the historic centre which has been designated as a conservation area. There are two public houses which date back to the 15th century and two chapels. The village also benefits from a primary school, doctors, bowls club and a variety of shops. Being part of the Dengie Hundred which is bounded by the River Blackwater and the River Crouch, the village also has footpaths throughout providing pleasant countryside walks.

The ground floor features a welcoming open-plan lounge and dining area, providing a versatile living space, along with a separate kitchen with storage space on either side which is positioned to the rear of the property. Also on the ground floor is a three-piece family bathroom, in keeping with the traditional cottage layout.

Upstairs, the property offers two well-proportioned bedrooms, both providing comfortable accommodation. To the rear, the home enjoys a generous south-facing garden which is mostly laid to lawn, measuring approximately 70ft. It offers plenty of outdoor space for relaxing, entertaining, or further landscaping. The property also benefits from a right of way over the neighbouring garden, providing access for taking bins to and from the front of the property.

Set within the desirable village of Tillingham, this property combines village charm, good-sized accommodation, and excellent potential, making it a fantastic choice for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors alike.
